Bill Filip of Delancey Street Partners and Delancey Street Capital Partners to participate in leading HR outsourcing conference.

Mr. Filip will speak on the panel: “Not with My Money You Don’t: Investment in Innovation and the HR Suite” as part of the HRO Today Forum held in Chicago on May 2nd – 4th, 2016. The panel will discuss how and why HR executives and leading investment professionals choose new HR solutions and the fate of winners and losers in the technology race. Accompanying Mr. Filip on the panel are Brian Little, Head of Human resources for Zurich North America; Kristen Robinson, Chief Human Resource Officer of Pandora; Lisa Sterling, Executive Vice President and Chief People Officer of Ceridian; and Bill Boorman, Founder of #Tru Events.

For the fifth consecutive year, Mr. Filip will also serve as a judge in the annual iTalent Competition as part of the HRO Today Forum. In this competition, top HR tech innovators go head-to-head with seven-minute pitches before a plenary audience and panel of HR technology experts, industry advisers, and investment analysts. Companies participating in this event include: emplo, Fairsail, gr8 People, HiringSolved, The Muse, and TrustSphere.
